

ESSENTIAL SOLUTIONS™

April 24, 2007

Dennis

I must say the past couple of days have been great. You reminded me of sales skills I have become sloppy using and taught me new skills, that will change both my personal and professional life. Your year of experience and willingness to share your knowledge. You opened my eyes to new ways to make money.

The chemical training was great it took the fear out of a product line, I had been afraid to sell. I believe this course will help our entire organization. Thank you!
