

The overall presentation was very informative and I enjoyed the way Dennis Parker introduced some specifics to help myself and others to guide us through our everyday sales calls. He showed me ways to become more comfortable with my clientele as well as myself. The program was filled with some levity which kept us in a positive mood. He really has a great memory with dealing with people and communicates on my level. Enjoyed the program immensely. Thank you Dennis for providing me with a (new) look on selling as well as my life day in and day out.

Sincerely
Wayne Meyer
