To Whom It may Concern

I have been through a 3 Day Sales Training class conducted by Dennis Parker. He was very knowledgeable and held our attention. I am leaving with more confidence in my own sales ability, than when I first started. He led our group with many examples of his own experiences, which was most helpful. He has an ability to blend humor in with his presentations, which was most enjoyable.

I would highly recommend Dennis to anyone that is looking for knowledge and motivation.
